Floral 2015–2016

Multi Packaging Solutions is proud to bring creative designs and innovative solutions to the floral industry!

This year we've announced our official name change to Multi Packaging Solutions. While John Henry® will always be a part of our legacy, we're excited to move forward under our new identity.

We have offered a complete line of everyday essentials for over a century, and this year we've updated and enhanced our product offerings even further. From forms and stationery to cards and envelopes, we have a variety of brand identity solutions that will set you apart at retail.

Over the course of the year, we've asked for your input and feedback as our creative team has developed the new designs, and we're thrilled to be sharing those with you now! Look for our "NEW" icon to quickly see how it's all come together.

We're passionate about print and packaging, and look forward to sharing in the excitement of the 2015-2016 season with you.
